Topic: Regarding Awareness programme on “Legal and Personal Rights of Women”

Internal Compliant Committee (ICC) organized an awareness programme “Legal and Personal Rights of Women” on 24th December 2019.

1. International human rights treaties prohibit discrimination on the basis of gender and also require States to ensure the protection and realization of women's rights in all areas – from property ownership and freedom from violence, to equal access to education and participation in government.
2. The Constitution of India not only grants equality to women but also empowers the State to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favor of women for neutralizing the cumulative socio economic, education and political disadvantages faced by them.
3. Issues commonly associated with notions of women's rights include the right to bodily integrity and autonomy, to be free from sexual violence, to vote, to hold public office, to enter into legal contracts, to have equal rights in family law, to work
